

LGBTQ+ ORAL HISTORY TRAINING WORKSHOP

Learn how to conduct oral history interviews and why LGBTQ communities need oral history and archival preservation. Join our team of interviewers and researchers.

---

Saturday, August 24 | 9:00 am to 3:30 pm
@ UNC Asheville | Highsmith Union | Room 125

Registration Required - Limited Seating

Sign-ups & Information at www.blueridgepride.org

Email: OralHistory@BlueRidgePride.org or AWray1@unca.edu

Workshop participants will

- attend a panel discussion with people representing various LGBTQ intersectionalities
- learn and practice interviewing and listening skills
- receive an oral history guidebook for contributing to the Western NC LGBTQ Archive Project
- gain experience collecting "needs assessment data" to support LGBTQ communities
- be paired with interested interview participants

Free Oral History Training Workshop hosted by Blue Ridge Pride, YMCA, and Amanda Wray (UNC Asheville)

The LGBTQ Oral History project is a collaboration of the Blue Ridge Pride Center and UNC Asheville, with generous support from the YMCA of Western NC.

